

Ewa Radkowska-Świętoń

Ewa Radkowska-Świętoń is an independent member of the Supervisory Board and Audit Committee at Kruk S.A. and an independent member of the Supervisory Board and Chair of the Audit Committee at Ipopema Securities S.A. She is also a member of the Capital Market Benchmarks Supervisory Committee at GPW Benchmark S.A. and a member of the Risk Committee at KDPW_CCP S.A.

She serves as President of the Association of Independent Supervisory Board Members and an expert at the Institute for Sustainable Development and Environment at Lazarski University.

Previously, she was President of the Management Board of Skarbiec Towarzystwo Funduszy Inwestycyjnych S.A. and Vice President and then President of the Management Board of Skarbiec Holding S.A., a WSE-listed company. In 2008–2017, she served as a member of the Management Board and then as Vice President of Nationale Nederlanden Powszechnie Towarzystwo Emerytalne S.A., where she was responsible for investments and corporate governance of the largest Polish open-end pension fund with more than PLN 70bn worth of assets under management.

She worked as a fund manager at Aviva Investors Polska S.A. and ING TFI S.A. (currently NN Investment Partners) and as an equity analyst at the Equity Transactions Centre of Bank Handlowy S.A.

She is a graduate of the Warsaw School of Economics. She is certified as CFA (Chartered Financial Analyst) and FRM (Financial Risk Manager).